DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to the amendment filed on January 29, 2009.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The rejection has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

The rejection has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-3, 6, 10-11, 15-25, and 27-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ruben (7,143,048) in view of Florance (6,871,140) and Broadbent (6,904,412), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Art Unit: 3691

With regard to the amended claims, Ruben discloses populating a lease agreement with owner property information (the system may pre-populate key information, which may include owner property information—col.4, lines 10-20, 50-60).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed January 29, 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argues that none of the references discloses or suggests populating a lease agreement with owner property information. In response, Ruben discloses the following:

Key data fields are captured during entity profile and user profile setup in the Administration module. This process is described below. The data is associated to property entities within the system and is accessible based on the user entity role level, as explained below. Data contained in these fields is used to direct and provide information to service request workflows and other parts of the system, e.g., pre-populating fields and choices to help simplify the user's use of the system. (col.4, lines 10-20).

Certain data is entered into the system relative to a particular property. A property represents the physical location of any type of property, such as a commercial office building, apartment house, shopping mall, etc. Associated with a particular property are entities generally comprising the property owner, property manager, one or more tenants, one or more contractors and vendors. A profile is to be set up for each of these entity categories, as selected in S113. The appropriate screen is displayed for entry of the data on the selected category. (col.4, lines 50-60).

Ruben discloses populating a lease agreement with owner property information (the system may pre-populate key information, which may include owner property information—col.4, lines 10-20, 50-60). Once the property information is entered into the system, the system may pre-populate the fields to simplify the user's use of the system. Pre-populating fields with important information is not a novel.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
